Gathering in the Spirit...

Welcome

We sing to you, O God STJ #1

Responsive reading (from Psalm 147 & Isaiah 40)

Leader: Praise the Lord! How good it is to sing praises to our God; for he is gracious, and a song of praise is fitting.

People: He heals the broken-hearted and binds up their wounds.

Leader: Have you not known? Have you not heard? Has it not been told you from the beginning? Have you not understood from the foundations of the earth?

People: It is he who sits above the circle of the earth, and its inhabitants are like grasshoppers; who stretches out the heavens like a curtain, and spreads them like a tent to live in;

Leader: Great is our Lord, and abundant in power; his understanding is beyond measure.

People: The Lord lifts up the downtrodden; he casts the wicked to the ground.

Leader: To whom then will you compare me, or who is my equal? says the Holy One.

People: The Lord takes pleasure in those who fear him, in those who hope in his steadfast love.

Leader: Have you not known? Have you not heard? The Lord is the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth.

People: He does not faint or grow weary; his understanding is unsearchable.

All: Even youths will faint and be weary, and the young will fall exhausted but those who wait for the Lord shall renew their strength, they shall run and not be weary, they shall walk and not faint.

Face2Face | Who Cares? The elderly among us... A global pandemic is shining a light on our assumptions about the elderly among us. COVID-19 has exposed cracks in our systems of care, and shed light on our understandings of aging, revealing how we value older adults in our communities. How might we listen anew to the voice and resilience of older adults, and how could such listening reshape our imagination and understanding? Join us on Zoom for a panel conversation with a Personal Care Home Executive, along with a number of seniors, including an Indigenous Elder. Wednesday, February 24, 7:00 – 8:30 PM (CST)
